Res 18-034 Applications to change spelling errors of historical significance

It was recently brought to Council's attention that the spelling of Denning Park in Byron Bay was incorrect. Council has since passed a resolution to correct the spelling on all signage, maps and notices with the Byron Shire.

So that we may correct other instances of names being misspelt, Council is calling for applications from Historical Societies to change spelling errors of historical significance.

Please forward any submissions to council@byron.nsw.gov.au

Yours sincerely
