Hello Malcolm

In respect to misspelling of places in the shire Hollingsworth Lane in Mullumbimby should be Hollingworth - no s. The Hollingworth family had the mill in Mullumbimby for over 60 years so the name is of historical significance.

As others are drawn to our attention we will be happy to inform you. We appreciate the opportunity to make these important corrections.

Thanks

Regards
Susan

Res 18-034 Applications to change spelling errors of historical significance

It was recently brought to Council's attention that the spelling of Denning Park in Byron Bay was incorrect. Council has since passed a resolution to correct the spelling on all signage, maps and notices with the Byron Shire.

So that we may correct other instances of names being misspelt, Council is calling for applications from Historical Societies to change spelling errors of historical significance.
