I hate Bangalow Height Cres. So unoriginal. Boring.
Why is a change necessary.? It is much more authentic, and original that Pioneers Cres. That sounds like a Soviet children's camp.
But it's much better than the first name. Settler's Cres might be better.
Granuaille - however is intriguing. One wants to know why? Who was Granuaille etc. (It is hard to spell, however.)
