

We all know farming can be a tough gig. We want to help

Byron Shire Council's Agricultural Extension Officer is offering free on-site farm visits to assist you with:

Land
planning

Growth or diversification
within your farming
enterprise

Production,
marketing,
sustainability
and sales

Connecting you
to education
workshops and resources available within our region

Farm field days and community
events

Andrew has been farming in the shire for over 8 years. He is experienced in setting up and running small-scale regenerative farms and is passionate about helping agriculture in Byron Shire become more productive and sustainable.
