Compose			RBONIGH ORRITON	We pay our respects to Together, we will bring	Elders past, present and future. the Dingo back home.	noscilico di Billigo III docilii).
	From V		ORIGINAL CORPORATI	TIME	INTENDED OUTCOME	CECCION
			ure, Western Science, and Legislation: A Voice for the Dingo	7.30am - 8.30am (1 hour)	INTENDED OUTCOME	SESSION  Arrival and Registration (sign-in)
☐ Inbox	□ - C	The National Inaugural First N	ations Dingo Forum aims to holistically address the	8.30am - 8.50am (20 mins)		FACILITATOR Forum Opening and Welcome • Welcome to Country:
Starred			ation aspects of the Dingo, fostering collaboration and Nations and Dingo-minded peoples in the journey.			Gimuy Walubara Yidinji and Yirrganydji Traditional Owners "Acknowledging those before us"  Introductions and acknowledgements
Starred	Louise E	-		8.50am - 9.00am (10 mins)		Overview of Agenda and Forum Objectives     Why are we here?
() Snoozed			MISSION	0.00 0.20	Dings Designation	Purpose and objectives of the forum  Girringun Aboriginal Corporation Ganibarra (Dingo) Film  Dingo a culturally classificant animal to many First Nations Books the Dingo through
Sent		brings together diverse repres	al Inaugural First Nations Dingo Forum that sentatives from First Nations and other Dingo-minded	9.00am - 9.30am (30 mins)	Dingo Declaration  1. Significance  2. Problem  3. Demand	Dingo, a culturally significant animal to many First Nations People: the Dingo through the Aboriginal timeline  Presented by Girringun Aboriginal Corporation Traditional Owner Dingo Working Group panel
□ Drafts	Louise		te for recognising and preserving the Dingo's cultural and ecological importance.	9.30am - 10.00am (30 mins)	Dingo Declaration  1. Significance	Sonya Takau, Phyllis Grant, Whitney Rassip, Chris Muriata & Troy Wyles Whelan  Breakout Session 1: Significance of Dingoes to your Country and your people  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.
				(00 111113)	(Cultural) 2. Problem 3. Demand	Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:
More		To any Eldon Tooditon of Orman Dr	THANKS TO		The National Dingo Network	How are Dingoes significant to you/your culture/your Country?      What do you want to get out of this forum? (First Nations participants need to apply this question to their Country – a local perspective.)
	Louise		ngers and those working towards the protection of the Dingo, show of support for our Dingoes now and into the future.			3. If culturally appropriate, please write your local language name for Dingo, and your Labels		Facilitator: Joann Schmider (	rom the Brooks Apical Family, Mamu native title holders			Country: language name for Dingo, Country. (The language name and your Country will be used in the "Dingo Declaration". If it cannot, please let us know.)
			roup], Dyirbal language nation of the Rainforest Aboriginal Tropics region of Tropical North Queensland)	10.00am -10.30am (30 mins) 10.30am - 10.40am	Dingo Declaration	Morning Tea  FACILITATOR
[Imap]/Drafts		Reporte	er: NITV ABC, The Guardian, Crikey	(10 mins)	Significance     Problem     Demand	Recapping on intended outcomes of the forum:  Dingo Declaration
Notes	me me		boriginal Corporation, Defend the Wild, Bradley Smith, In Schmider, and Dr Barry Traill		3. Demand  National First Nations Dingo  Network	National Dingo Network  • Recapping on the first session cultural significance of the Dingo to First Nations peoples
			rship of The National Inaugural First Nations Dingo Forum!			The several upcoming sessions relate to The Dingo through scientific ecological perspectives
Sent Messages			tribution is vital to continue our important work. without the generosity of supporters like you.	10.40am - 11.00am (15 Presentation + 5 min Q&A)	1. Significance 3. Demand	The Importance of the Dingo in the natural environment and ecological significance  Presented by Dr Barry Traill
	meS
	Tess
					•	GIRRINGUA
		Y 1: FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 20	23			O'LERING UA
	DA		23 SESSION	TIME	INTENDED OUTCOME	SESSION
	Cr. San  TIM  11.00  (15 P	E INTENDED OUTCOME  Dam - 11.20am 2. Problem 3. Demand		3.20pm – 3.40pm (15 Presentation +	Significance     Problem	SESSION  Promoting Wongari-Wise Behaviour on K'gari
	Cr. San  TIM  11.00  (15 P	E INTENDED OUTCOME  Dam - 11.20am 2. Problem	SESSION  Dingo DNA molecular biology and conservation genetics. Scientific research on the	3.20pm - 3.40pm	1. Significance	SESSION
	Cr. Sar  TIM  11.00  Louise (15 P) 5 min	E INTENDED OUTCOME  Dam - 11.20am 2. Problem 3. Demand	SESSION  Dingo DNA molecular biology and conservation genetics. Scientific research on the "Wild Dog" myth and the genomic identity of Dingoes	3.20pm – 3.40pm (15 Presentation +	1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dingo Declaration 1. Significance	Promoting Wongari-Wise Behaviour on K'gari  Presented by Tessa Waia and Darren Blake Butchulla Aboriginal Corporation  Breakout Session 4: Dingo management moving forward.
	Cr. Sar  TIM  11.00  Louise (15 P) 5 min	INTENDED OUTCOME  Dam - 11.20am resentation + 3. Demand  Q&A)  Dam - 11.50am  1. Significance (ecological)	SESSION  Dingo DNA molecular biology and conservation genetics. Scientific research on the "Wild Dog" myth and the genomic identity of Dingoes  Presented by Dr Kylie Cairns  Breakout Session 2: Benefits of Dingoes in the natural environment, DNA Research and	3.20pm - 3.40pm (15 Presentation + 5 min Q&A) 3.40pm - 4.10pm	Significance     Problem     Demand  Dingo Declaration	Promoting Wongari-Wise Behaviour on K'gari  Presented by Tessa Waia and Darren Blake Butchulla Aboriginal Corporation
	TIM  11.00  Louise  Louise  11.20  (30 m	INTENDED OUTCOME  Dam - 11.20am resentation + 1 Q&A)  2. Problem 3. Demand  1. Significance (ecological) 2. Problem 2. Problem	SESSION  Dingo DNA molecular biology and conservation genetics. Scientific research on the "Wild Dog" myth and the genomic identity of Dingoes  Presented by Dr Kylie Cairns  Breakout Session 2: Benefits of Dingoes in the natural environment, DNA Research and the "Wild Dog" terminology.	3.20pm - 3.40pm (15 Presentation + 5 min Q&A) 3.40pm - 4.10pm	1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dingo Declaration 1. Significance 2. Problem	Promoting Wongari-Wise Behaviour on K'gari  Presented by Tessa Waia and Darren Blake Butchulla Aboriginal Corporation  Breakout Session 4: Dingo management moving forward.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:
	Cr. Sar  TIM  11.00  Louise (15 P) 5 min	INTENDED OUTCOME  Dam - 11.20am resentation + 1 Q&A)  2. Problem 3. Demand  1. Significance (ecological) 2. Problem 2. Problem	Dingo DNA molecular biology and conservation genetics. Scientific research on the "Wild Dog" myth and the genomic identity of Dingoes  Presented by Dr Kylie Cairns  Breakout Session 2: Benefits of Dingoes in the natural environment, DNA Research and the "Wild Dog" terminology.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:  1. What do Dingoes do (ecologically) on different traditional Countries?  2. What do you see as Dingoes doing for the environment and people on your Country?	3.20pm - 3.40pm (15 Presentation + 5 min Q&A) 3.40pm - 4.10pm	1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dingo Declaration 1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  National First Nations Dingo	Promoting Wongari-Wise Behaviour on K'gari  Presented by Tessa Waia and Darren Blake Butchulla Aboriginal Corporation  Breakout Session 4: Dingo management moving forward.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo
	TIM  11.00  Louise  Louise  11.20  (30 m	INTENDED OUTCOME  Dam - 11.20am resentation + 1 Q&A)  2. Problem 3. Demand  1. Significance (ecological) 2. Problem 2. Problem	Dingo DNA molecular biology and conservation genetics. Scientific research on the "Wild Dog" myth and the genomic identity of Dingoes  Presented by Dr Kylie Cairns  Breakout Session 2: Benefits of Dingoes in the natural environment, DNA Research and the "Wild Dog" terminology.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:  1. What do Dingoes do (ecologically) on different traditional Countries?  2. What do you see as Dingoes doing for the environment and people on your Country? (local perspective)	3.20pm - 3.40pm (15 Presentation + 5 min Q&A) 3.40pm - 4.10pm	1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dingo Declaration 1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  National First Nations Dingo	Promoting Wongari-Wise Behaviour on K'gari  Presented by Tessa Waia and Darren Blake Butchulla Aboriginal Corporation  Breakout Session 4: Dingo management moving forward.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:  1. How would you like to see Dingoes managed on your Country?  2. What do you want to happen on your traditional lands with Dingo protection/
	Cr. San  TIM  11.00  Louise (15 P) 5 min  Tess	INTENDED OUTCOME  Dam - 11.20am resentation + 1 Q&A)  Dam - 11.50am 1. Significance (ecological) 2. Problem 3. Demand  3. Demand	Dingo DNA molecular biology and conservation genetics. Scientific research on the "Wild Dog" myth and the genomic identity of Dingoes  Presented by Dr Kylie Cairns  Breakout Session 2: Benefits of Dingoes in the natural environment, DNA Research and the "Wild Dog" terminology.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:  1. What do Dingoes do (ecologically) on different traditional Countries?  2. What do you see as Dingoes doing for the environment and people on your Country? (local perspective)  3. How do you identify a Dingo or "wild dog"?  FACILITATOR  • Recapping on the ecological importance	3.20pm - 3.40pm (15 Presentation + 5 min Q&A) 3.40pm - 4.10pm	1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dingo Declaration 1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  National First Nations Dingo	Promoting Wongari-Wise Behaviour on K'gari  Presented by Tessa Waia and Darren Blake Butchulla Aboriginal Corporation  Breakout Session 4: Dingo management moving forward.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:  1. How would you like to see Dingoes managed on your Country?  2. What do you want to happen on your traditional lands with Dingo protection/management?  Eg: changed laws, changed management on public or native title lands, increased power
	Cr. Sar  TIM  11.00  Louise (15 P 5 min  11.20  (30 m  Kylie, L  10.50 (10 m	Dam - 11.20am 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dam - 11.50am 1. Significance (ecological) 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dam - 12.00pm nins)	SESSION  Dingo DNA molecular biology and conservation genetics. Scientific research on the "Wild Dog" myth and the genomic identity of Dingoes  Presented by Dr Kylie Cairns  Breakout Session 2: Benefits of Dingoes in the natural environment, DNA Research and the "Wild Dog" terminology.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:  1. What do Dingoes do (ecologically) on different traditional Countries?  2. What do you see as Dingoes doing for the environment and people on your Country? (local perspective)  3. How do you identify a Dingo or "wild dog"?  FACILITATOR	3.20pm - 3.40pm (15 Presentation + 5 min Q&A) 3.40pm - 4.10pm (30 mins)	1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dingo Declaration 1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  National First Nations Dingo	SESSION  Promoting Wongari-Wise Behaviour on K'gari  Presented by Tessa Waia and Darren Blake Butchulla Aboriginal Corporation  Breakout Session 4: Dingo management moving forward.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:  1. How would you like to see Dingoes managed on your Country?  2. What do you want to happen on your traditional lands with Dingo protection/management?  Eg: changed laws, changed management on public or native title lands, increased power for Indigenous Rangers, funding for active management by TO's etc.  Day One Overview and Summary
	Cr. San  TIM  11.00  Louise (15 P 5 min  Tess  Kylie, I  10.50 (10 m  Louise 12.00 (15 P)  1.000 (15 P)	Dam - 11.20am 2. Problem resentation + 3. Demand  Dam - 11.50am 1. Significance (ecological) 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dam - 12.00pm nins)  Dam - 1.20pm resentation + 2. Problem 3. Demand	Dingo DNA molecular biology and conservation genetics. Scientific research on the "Wild Dog" myth and the genomic identity of Dingoes  Presented by Dr Kylie Cairns  Breakout Session 2: Benefits of Dingoes in the natural environment, DNA Research and the "Wild Dog" terminology.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:  1. What do Dingoes do (acclogically) on different traditional Countries?  2. What do you see as Dingoes doing for the environment and people on your Country? (local perspective)  3. How do you identify a Dingo or "wild dog"?  FACILITATOR  • Recapping on the ecological importance  • Dingo DNA research including "Wild Dog" myth  Lunch	3.20pm - 3.40pm (15 Presentation + 5 min Q&A) 3.40pm - 4.10pm (30 mins)	1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dingo Declaration 1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  National First Nations Dingo	SESSION  Promoting Wongari-Wise Behaviour on K'gari  Presented by Tessa Waia and Darren Blake Butchulla Aboriginal Corporation  Breakout Session 4: Dingo management moving forward.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:  1. How would you like to see Dingoes managed on your Country?  2. What do you want to happen on your traditional lands with Dingo protection/management?  Eg: changed laws, changed management on public or native title lands, increased power for Indigenous Rangers, funding for active management by TO's etc.  Day One Overview and Summary
	Cr. San  TIM  11.00  Louise (15 P 5 min  Tess  Kylie, I  10.50 (10 m  Louise 12.00 (15 P)  1.000 (15 P)	Dam - 11.20am 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dam - 11.50am 1. Significance (ecological) 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dam - 12.00pm nins)  Dpm - 1.00pm 2. Problem  2. Problem 2. Problem 3. Demand	Dingo DNA molecular biology and conservation genetics. Scientific research on the "Wild Dog" myth and the genomic identity of Dingoes  Presented by Dr Kylie Cairns  Breakout Session 2: Benefits of Dingoes in the natural environment, DNA Research and the "Wild Dog" terminology.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:  1. What do Dingoes do (ecologically) on different traditional Countries?  2. What do you see as Dingoes doing for the environment and people on your Country? (local perspective)  3. How do you identify a Dingo or "wild dog"?  FACILITATOR  • Recapping on the ecological importance  • Dingo DNA research including "Wild Dog" myth  Lunch	3.20pm - 3.40pm (15 Presentation + 5 min Q&A) 3.40pm - 4.10pm (30 mins)	1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  Dingo Declaration 1. Significance 2. Problem 3. Demand  National First Nations Dingo	SESSION  Promoting Wongari-Wise Behaviour on K'gari  Presented by Tessa Waia and Darren Blake Butchulla Aboriginal Corporation  Breakout Session 4: Dingo management moving forward.  Please remain at your tables for each breakout session.  Each group to discuss and answer the following questions to support the draft Dingo Declaration:  1. How would you like to see Dingoes managed on your Country?  2. What do you want to happen on your traditional lands with Dingo protection/management?  Eg: changed laws, changed management on public or native title lands, increased power for Indigenous Rangers, funding for active management by TO's etc.  Day One Overview and Summary	